Press Release

DATE OF INCIDENT: July 25, 2017

TYPE OF INCIDENT: (PC) 460(a) - Residential Burglary

LOCATION: 300 block of S. Lincoln St.

SUSPECT: Kelli Dean: 35 year old Ridgecrest resident

RESUME OF INCIDENT

On July 25, 2017, at about 0145 hours, Officer Tucker contacted Kelli Dean at the corner of N. Norma St. and W. Coso Av. It was learned Dean had five warrants for her arrest. Upon arresting Dean, it was discovered she was in possession of a checkbook that belonged to a subject living in the 300 block of S. Lincoln St. After booking Dean at the Ridgecrest Police Department holding facility, Officer Tucker contacted the subject on S. Lincoln St. It was learned the victim had accidentally left the garage door open and when he returned home he noticed items had been taken from the inside of the residence. During his investigation, Officer Tucker was able to recover most of the stolen property. Dean was additionally arrested for the above listed burglary charge and later booked at Central Receiving Facility in Bakersfield Ca.
