

RESOLUTION NO 07-57

A RESOLUTION OF THE RIDGECREST CITY COUNCIL AUTHORIZING CITY MANAGER TO ENTER INTO A CONTRACT WITH GREAT WESTERN PARK AND PLAYGROUND IN THE AMOUNT OF $41,959.51 FOR THE DESIGN AND BUILD OF KERR-MCGEE COMMUNITY CENTER PLAYGROUND

WHEREAS, on October 2, 2007 bids were solicited locally and out of town for the Design and Build of the Kerr McGee Community Center Playground. On November 8, 2007 Bids were accepted and opened. Three bids were received:

1. Great Western Park and Playground from Wellsville, UT (representative from Solvang, CA) $41,959.00
2. Sheffield Construction from Bakersfield, CA $46,800.00
3. Park Specialties from Temecula, CA $53,470.12 -- (This company forgot to include a Design in the Bid) ; and

WHEREAS, this contract was not based necessarily on a low bid. The project's budget was set at $42,000 with the City looking for concept design, exceptional quality of playground equipment, long term warranty, the responsibility and assurance that playground equipment is certified, meets the guidelines established nationally and with the State of California and that playground is ADA compliant; and

WHEREAS, after Staff's review and with the assistance of the Youth Advisory Committee a recommendation is being made to award contract to Great Western Park and Playground. Great Western Park and Playground's Design (Attachment A) has met our requirements and also stayed within the budget allocated for this project. This project includes installation. Also the references provided were all favorable responses; and

WHEREAS, staff is recommending to City Council to authorize City Manager to enter into contract with Great Western Park and Playground in the amount of $41,959.51 for the Design and Build of KMCC Playground.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of Ridgecrest authorizes City Manager to enter into a contract with Great Western Park and Playground in the amount of $41,959.51 for the Design & Build of KMCC Playground
