Press Release

DATE OF INCIDENT: MARCH 31ST, 2013
TYPE OF INCIDENT: BURGLARY SUSPECT ARRESTED
LOCATION OCCURED: 300 BLOCK OF N. ROBALO ST.
SUSPECT(S): Clint Keeler – 27 Years Old – Ridgecrest Resident

For the past several days, RPD Officers had been looking for Clint Keeler to question him regarding several crimes that had occurred in the “La Mirage” and “Oasis” housing areas in Ridgecrest. On 03/30/2013, officers observed Keeler in that same area from a distance, but he quickly fled the area and avoided contact. On 03/31/2013, Detective Lloyd, Officer Tucker, and Officer Cushman tracked Keeler to a residence in the 300 block of N. Robalo St. The tenants of the apartment were on vacation and Keeler did not have permission to be inside the residence. Keeler was located inside the residence and determined to have been staying/hiding at the location for the past few days. Several items were determined to also be missing from the residence.

Keeler was arrested on charges of Residential Burglary and booked into the Kern County Jail.
